

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Edward Jones,

Plaintiff

Daryl Morgan, et al.,

Defendants

Case No.: 2:23-cv-02100-JAD-MDC

Order Denying Motions to Amend
Complaint and for Injunctive Relief in this Stayed Case

[ECF Nos. 19, 21]

Clark County Detention Center detainee Edward Jones filed this civil-rights lawsuit under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for events surrounding his arrest, search, seizure, and ongoing state-court prosecution.¹ I recently stayed his case under the Supreme Court’s decision in Younger v. Harris, which prohibits federal courts from interfering in ongoing state criminal proceedings like Jones’s, and advised Jones that he may move to lift the stay once his state-court proceedings have concluded.²

15 Jones now moves to amend his complaint and for injunctive relief, both based on a series
16 of events unrelated to his original complaint.³ I deny both motions because this case is stayed
17 and the reason for the stay—Jones’s state-court proceedings—persists.⁴ The only motion that

³ ECF Nos. 19, 20, 21 (arguing that CCDC officials denied him access to property in the form of a magazine containing legal resources—and also pictures of women that the officials deemed sexually explicit—in violation of the First Amendment).

²² See Clark County Inmate Search, Defendant ID 8593738,

1 Jones is permitted to file in this case is one that requests to lift that stay once his state-court case
2 has been resolved. Jones may file his unrelated (and newly proposed) First Amendment claim in 3 a separate action, but he cannot pursue it in this case.

4 Conclusion

5 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Jones's motions to amend his complaint [ECF No.
6 19] and for injunctive relief [ECF No. 21] are DENIED because this case remains stayed.
